

Thesis: Level 1, 2 or 3?

When kindly Mr. Mikolavich indicates, turn to your neighbor and, one at a time, do the following for each individual's thesis:

1. Determine its level. Is it a one, two or three? Write the number below and indicate what words in the thesis tell you its level:

2. If the thesis is a level one or two, suggest ways the writer can make it more sophisticated, more complicated.

Ask: What opinions do you have on the subject?

And, What is the larger significance of your observation and opinion? Why should it matter for your readers?
