BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: AUTHORITY

Section 1.

These Bylaws shall represent the full authority of the ASDVC as designated in the Constitution. The Bylaws may not contradict the Constitution.

ARTICLE II: PROCESS FOR BECOMING A BOARD OF PETITIONER

Section 1.

1. In order to become a member of the Board of Petitioners, a student must be in good academic and disciplinary standing within the Contra Costa Community College District.
2. In order to become a member of the Board of Petitioners, a student must be officially enrolled in and maintain at least five (5) units at DVC each semester.
3. A cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained during each semester of Board membership. GPA and unit checks are made each semester at the end of each semester. Members who drop below the aforementioned requirements must inform the ASDVC President and Advisor of their ineligibility. The Student Life Office or Advisor informs all continuing board members of their outstanding Board member status prior to the beginning of the fall and spring semesters.
4. A member of the Board of Petitioners may not hold office concurrently in student government of another college or university, nor act in a manner against, or that does not comply with, the ASDVC governing documents.

5. Each member of the Board of Petitioners must serve as a representative to at least one College Committee or Task Force or an ASDVC Committee, including attending meetings and reporting back to the ASDVC Board.
6. A member of the Board who drops below the aforementioned requirements will automatically be removed from his/her position as a Board member, and will not be allowed to re-petition until the individual has completed a full semester while maintaining the aforementioned standards.
7. Any Board member needing a leave of absence must submit their request in writing to the ASDVC President for Board approval. If Board approved, the absent member must thereafter continue to keep informed on ASDVC business. Leaves of absences will be granted ONLY for a maximum of a four (4) week period, and only for emergency situations.
8. Board members will not make agreements on behalf of the ASDVC Board or use an ASDVC title unless under an authority not restricted in the "ASDVC POLICY REGARDING USE OF ASDVC NAME."
9. Every Board member must attend all meetings and summits deemed mandatory by a majority of the Executive Committee or President under the guidance of the Advisor.
 - a. Any member who misses at least 15 minutes of any official ASDVC board meetings and/or committee meetings will be deemed as absent.
This includes coming to the meetings late or leaving the meetings early.
10. Such meetings can include, but are not limited to, retreats held at the start of the fall and spring semesters.
11. Board members are expected to actively participate in ASDVC/ICC sponsored events.
12. Board members must not have class during the ASDVC general board meetings. Any applicant with a class conflict during these hours will automatically be dropped from Board membership.

Section 2.

New Board Member Requirements

1. In order to be considered for board membership, a prospective Board member must attend at least one (1) informational session and accomplish an open book quiz offered during the current semester's petitioning period. A prospective Board member who fails the quiz will immediately be rejected in becoming a Board member. A prospective Board member would then have to attend another info session and repeat the process again. The maximum number of trials is limited to two times, at this point, a prospective member will be prohibited from attempting to join the Board through this path of petition for the semester.
2. In a case where prospective Board members are unable to fulfill the requirements within the given period, they can still petition for their membership, considering that they must attend and pass an open book quiz, administered by the Parliamentarian, about ASDVC and parliamentary procedure before attending their 3rd consecutive ASDVC board meeting. A prospective Board member who fails to get a 70% or higher on the quiz will immediately be rejected in becoming a Board member. Upon their 3rd attendance of an ASDVC board meeting, the ASDVC Board of Petitioners may vote to allow the prospective member to join the current ASDVC Board of Petitioners with a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote of voting members.
3. When new senators petition beyond the info session period, as in the Section above, they must attend a brief orientation given by the Vice President of Executive Affairs and Parliamentarian within the end of the month that they petitioned.

Section 3.

Continuing Board Member Requirements

1. A continuing Board Member is one who wishes to continue their Board Membership into the following term (one academic year) for as long as they are eligible according to ASDVC Bylaws. In accordance with the Constitution, an elected Board member shall possess a membership of one academic year from the Fall through the Spring semester.
2. Members who start their membership on the Spring semester need to complete a DVCsync Application if they are interested to extend their membership the following Fall semester.
3. In addition, Board members wishing to extend their membership shall participate in the process of informational sessions at least once in a leadership role.
4. Continuing Board members are not required to take the mandatory ASDVC quiz.
5. All extensions, if validated and approved by the Student Life Office, shall reinstate the board member's year-long membership.
6. Continuing Board Membership Petition may be held at the end of the spring semester for the following academic year.

Section 4.

Attendance Code

1. Every Board member must attend all meetings and summits deemed mandatory by a majority of the Executive Committee or President under the guidance of the Advisor.
2. Senators must dress professionally during any ASDVC General Board Meeting, as they are the representatives of the students at DVC.
3. Attendance at committee meetings shall be defined by the chair of each committee.
4. The following shall be considered a tardy:
 - a. Arriving 15 minutes after the roll call is finished.
 - b. Departing any time before the adjournment of the meeting or 4:00 PM (whichever comes first).
5. Board members shall be allowed three unexcused absences per semester from the General Board meeting and or Executive meeting. Members who have accumulated two unexcused absences shall be given a warning by Secretary and/or Presidential designee 24 hours prior to the next official ASDVC board meeting and/or executive meeting.
 - a. The following circumstances shall constitute as an excused absence/tardy in pursuant to California Educational Code Section 48205:
 - i. Death, accident, or illness in the family
 - ii. Personal illness or accident
 - iii. Student Government Association official business
 - iv. Official DVC business
 - v. Other excuses deemed valid by the Advisor
6. Any Board member needing a leave of absence must submit their request in writing to the ASDVC President for Board approval. If the Executive Board approved, the absent member must thereafter continue to keep informed on ASDVC business. Leaves of absences will be granted ONLY for a maximum of a four (4) week period, and only for emergency situations.

7. All Executives must hold committee meetings twice per month. Failure to do so will count as two absences per month (4 weeks).

Section 5.

Membership Denial Procedures

1. In the case of a new or continuing ASDVC petitioner applicant who is denied membership to the ASDVC Board, they may appeal to the currently active ASDVC Board of Petitioners to have specific aspects of the process of becoming a board of petitioner reconsidered.
2. To appeal the Board of Petitioner application denial, the applicant must submit the appeal in writing 24 hours prior to the second ASDVC meeting to express if they intend to appeal the denial.
3. Discussion and voting of the appeals will occur at the second ASDVC Board meeting.
4. Aspects of the Board of Petitioner Applicant Process that may be reconsidered include:
 - a. Not obtaining thirty (30) valid signatures from currently enrolled and registered DVC students due to reasons that were out of their control.
 - a. Not attending the mandatory ASDVC retreat due to an emergency or other reason out of their control.
5. Aspects of the Board of Petitioner Applicant Process that may not be reconsidered include:
 - a. Petitioners who are not in good academic and disciplinary standing with the Contra Costa Community College District.
 - b. Petitioners who are not officially enrolled in and maintaining at least five (5) units at DVC each semester.
 - c. Petitioners who do not have and maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0.
 - d. Petitioners holding office in student government of another college or university.
 - e. Petitioners who have time conflicts with the ASDVC Board meeting time of 2:00pm - 4:00pm on Tuesdays.
 - f. Petitioners who did not attend an ASDVC Information Session.
 - g. Petitioners who did not pass the ASDVC Information Quiz during either of their maximum of two attempts.
 - h. Petitioners who did not speak in front of at least three classes and who did not submit a completed 'ASDVC Class Outreach Form.'
 - i. Petitioners who did not adequately attempt to collect the minimum thirty (30) valid signatures of currently enrolled and registered DVC students.
 - j. Petitioners who did not submit the ASDVC Petition for installment within the first fourteen days of the start of the semester that they are intending to join.
6. Appeal Time Limitations:
 - a. Appeals must be completed by the second official ASDVC meeting of the semester to be appealed.
7. Voting Requirements:
 - a. Current ASDVC Board of Petitioners may vote to allow the ASDVC petitioner applicant to join the current ASDVC Board of Petitioners with a 2/3 vote of voting members.

Section 6

1. In the event of a national, state, or local emergency where the campus is shut for an extended period of time, the petition procedures shall be suspended. The Executive Board, in conjunction with the Office of Student Life, shall adopt an alternative to the petition procedures.

ARTICLE III: ELECTIONS

Section 1.

1. All Board elections shall be conducted by the ASDVC Board.
2. Qualifications: All candidates must be officially recognized members of the Associated Students of Diablo Valley College (ASDVC Board of Petitioners). They must have met the ASDVC Constitution requirements.
3. Nominations for candidates will be made beginning at the first ASDVC meeting in March and will be closed at the second meeting in March during the Spring semester. Only ASDVC Board members can make nominations.
4. All nominations must have a first motion, no second is required. A member wishing to second a nomination for the purpose of endorsement can do so. Individuals may nominate themselves. No person may be nominated or run for more than one ASDVC office in a given election.
5. The ASDVC may allocate funds for the employment of Short Term Hourly persons, who will work at election Polling Stations. The ASDVC will establish a budget each year for the expense.
6. In case of a tie between two candidates for an officer, a run-off election will be held. The date, time and campaigning rules will be determined by the Election Committee, and will take place prior to the end of the Spring semester.
7. If the result of General Elections does not yield the majority of Executive Board. We shall have Special Election for the vacant positions by opening votes to all DVC students. This case shall not be applied to Section 2.

Section 2.

Special Elections

1. Positions that are vacated on the Executive Board will be filled at the ASDVC meetings. Nominations for vacant positions will be presented as an action item at the next official ASDVC meeting after the resignation. Elections for vacant Board positions will be presented as an action item at the following ASDVC meeting. Only ASDVC Board members will vote for these candidates. No open elections of the student body will take place to fill vacant positions.
2. The election procedure shall be as follows:
First, the chair shall take nominations at the general board meeting.
Nominations do not require a second and self-nominations shall be allowed.
Second, candidates shall have at a maximum of three minutes to give opening statements in the order in which they were nominated.
Third, candidates shall be asked up to four questions. Two questions shall be submitted from the Executive Board and two questions shall be submitted from the General Board.

All candidates shall answer the same questions. Candidates shall answer questions in the reverse order of nomination. Questions shall be submitted in writing and collected by the Secretary. The questions shall be chosen randomly, without being read first, by the President. Five minutes shall be allotted for the Board to compose questions and submit them to the Secretary.

Fourth, each candidate shall have one minute to provide a closing statement. Statements shall be given in the order of nomination.

Fifth, the Board shall vote by ballot. Each member shall choose only one candidate. Each ballot will have the name of the person voting, the position being voted on, and the person the candidate is casting their vote for. In the event no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, a runoff shall be held between only the top two candidates receiving the most votes. In the event more than two candidates are tied for the two highest amount of votes cast, the runoff shall include each candidate who has tied for the highest votes cast. For example, if Candidate A receives 14 votes, Candidate B receives 11 votes, Candidate C receives 11 votes, Candidate D receives 10 votes, Candidate E receives 9 votes, and Candidate F receives 9 votes, only Candidates A, B, and C shall participate in the run off. There will be no further statements given by the candidates and no further questions shall be allowed. An immediate ballot vote using the same procedure shall take place. This process shall be repeated until one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast.

3. Those elected to fill vacant positions will hold office until the end of their term, if they remain eligible. Elections conducted by an ASDVC Board of Petitioners vote must be done according to the rules of the Brown Act.
4. By the time of the election, candidates nominated must be an official member of the ASDVC Board per Article V. Failure to meet this qualification will result in disqualification of the candidate.
5. No person may hold more than one office at a time. Current executives may be nominated for vacant positions, and they need not resign their current position unless if they are elected. At that time, the position previously held shall immediately become vacant.

ARTICLE IV: REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

Section 1.

1. Board members who have three unexcused absences and/or violations from regularly scheduled ASDVC general meetings and/or executive meetings (for executives only) shall be subjected to removal. Board members will be notified of such meetings in person, by telephone, or in writing by an Executive Officer, Advisor, or Student Life Staff before the meeting(s) take place. Members who have missed two meetings shall be given a warning by Secretary and/or Presidential designee 24 hours prior to the next official ASDVC board meeting and/or executive meeting.
 - a. If a board member up for removal is voted to continue to serve in the board, failure to attend an additional meeting would result in automatic removal from the board.
2. If a member has an unexcused absence from a committee meeting, that member is subject to removal by a majority vote of the committee. If the member has a second unexcused absence, the chair has the authority to remove that member from that committee without a vote by the committee. If a member has a third unexcused absence, he or she is automatically removed from the committee.

3. If the Board member is removed from their only committee, he/she will be recommended for removal from the Board.
4. Revocation of Board membership shall be accomplished by a 2/3 vote of the majority of members present at a regularly scheduled meeting.
5. Any board member who was removed by the ASDVC for missing more than three meetings shall not be permitted to repetition the following semester.

Section 2.

1. The ASDVC Board shall have the power to censure, suspend or expel a Board Member or Executive Officer based on evidence supplied in a valid complaint.
 - a. Recommendations and discussions regarding the membership status or the performance of a Board Member that may result in censure, suspension or expulsion must be initiated in an Executive Committee meeting. Complaints must be submitted in writing and signed by the person making the complaint, after first meeting with the Advisor to discuss the legitimacy of the complaint. Anonymous complaints will not be considered valid.
 - b. Valid complaints will be placed on the next Executive Committee agenda, in accordance with the Brown Act.
 - c. Any ASDVC Board Member affected by such discussions or recommendations shall be notified in advance of the Executive Committee meeting agenda being posted by the ASDVC President or Advisor or designee. S/he shall be allowed to appear before the Executive Committee to present information on his/her own behalf and/or respond to questions prior to a vote on the recommendation of whether or not to forward the matter to the ASDVC Board, or other proposed recommendations. However, if the member fails or elects not to attend the meeting or provide information, the ASDVC Executive Committee may choose to take action based on the information available to them.
 - i. The Executive Committee may choose to try to resolve the matter informally between the affected member, the complainant, the ASDVC advisor, and the ASDVC President or Vice President. If all members agree to the informal resolution, the matter will be considered resolved.
 - ii. The Executive Committee may choose to refer the matter to the full ASDVC Board for a decision at a Board meeting.
2. If the Executive Committee votes to take the matter to the ASDVC Board, the affected Board member shall be notified in advance of the agenda being posted by the ASDVC President or Advisor. S/he will be allowed to appear before the ASDVC Board to present information on his/her own behalf and/or respond to questions prior to a vote on the recommendation for censure, suspension or expulsion from the ASDVC Board.
3. Final voting or action in the matter will occur at the next regular session of the ASDVC Board with recommendations to the Dean of Student Life and/or President of the College. Prior to final voting or action taken, the Dean of Student Life and/or DVC College President will be notified.
4. If an Executive Officer has 2 unexcused absences to the General Body Meeting, or fails to hold their committee meetings for 3 consecutive weeks, they shall be automatically put up for removal in the General Body Meeting.

5. A recommendation to censure, suspend or expel a member of the ASDVC Board must receive a 2/3 affirmative vote of the majority of members present at the meeting to pass.
