
If you receive Federal Aid and then WITHDRAW from all your classes before completing 60% of the term, you will have to pay back any unearned federal aid money you have received in order to maintain your eligibility.

STUDENTS LOSE ELIGIBILITY UNTIL FEDERAL AID IS REPAID!

You will not owe a repayment if you withdraw after:

- FALL 2014 – October 28, 2014
- SPRING 2015 – March 25, 2015

If you are Thinking of Withdrawing From All Your Classes Or Just Leaving…
Please Think Again and visit the Financial Aid Office
There are other options such as a Leave of Absence or taking fewer courses!

See an Academic Counselor right away and discuss your academic or personal reasons for leaving. Perhaps you can stay. Maybe there are services that will help you, like tutoring or personal support. Talk to your teachers, see what advice and help they can offer.

The withdrawal process must first be completed at Admissions. Then immediately go to the Financial Aid Office to learn how much you will owe and how you must repay it.

Work with the Financial Aid Office so that you can arrange for regular payments with the federal government without losing your student aid eligibility. It is important to take care of the details before you leave. If you go without taking care of this matter and you owe money, the Financial Aid Office will put a NATIONAL HOLD on your federal financial aid eligibility.
