----- Draft Minutes -----

A Conversation with Judy Walters			Judy Walters	10
Discussion: Judy talked about the projected building plans for student services—building plans are being designed to have as little impact on staff and students as possible. Judy recognized the support she receives from classified staff who work in her office, Jeanie Dewhurst and Katherine Jinter.
<hr/>
Action items: Although Judy will meet with individual classified, she suggested that classified bring topics of concern to classified senate leadership for their meetings with her.			Person responsible: Jocelyn Iannucci & Michael Gong	Deadline: ongoing
Introduction			Jocelyn Iannucci	15
Discussion: Jocelyn reported her increased understanding of the role Classified Senates play Statewide; summer vacation activities included developing the new classified senate website, the party to reopen the Classified Senate office, the possibility of a second room for meetings. Michael Gong asked folks to let him know if they have issues.
Jocelyn recognized that many classified find it difficult to participate in meetings and said Classified Senate expects to find ways to encourage and support participation of our constituent group.
Action items: Let Jocelyn or Michael know if you'd like to add something to the website.			Person responsible: Jocelyn Iannucci, Michael Gong	Deadline: ongoing
<hr/>
Creating Goals			Sue Rohlicek	15
Discussion: The group brainstormed short- and long-term goals that will be prioritized by Classified Senate. Several Classified attended Appreciative Inquiry leadership training, which focuses on reframing questions, not to ignore problems, but to find success stories for dealing with them.
<hr/>
Action items: At the September 12 meeting, the membership will begin to prioritize the items that were brainstormed. We expect to bring the objectives of appreciative inquiry to setting goals for Classified Senate.			Person responsible: Classified Senate leadership and membership.	Deadline:
