2. Approval of April 6, 2016 minutes:

It was MSC, with no objections and by all present to approve the minutes as written.

3. Public Comment –

- Senate members discussed the Hay study and expressed concerns about descriptions. Some felt that they were not updated correctly and others were concerned about compensation. Rodriguez and Heiden reminded the senate that the compensation is a separate part of the study and will come at a later date. Other issues included bumping rights and the concern for the amount of appeals that may be filed.

4. Council Announcements & President's Report –

- Bhuiyan noted that there are many faculty hires happening this semester.
- J. Martin announced that there will be one more round of professional development funding for classified. She added that a call for FLEX proposals will come out shortly.
- Agostino provided a copy of Student Services Procedure 3003 which covers smoking on college premises. Senate was asked to take the document back to their area for review.
 - It was questioned if the skateboarding issue is in discussion.
- Agostino and Heiden thanked those who attended the Classified Leadership Retreat and felt overall the event was successful. JobLinks is June 2.

5. College Council Preview - Agostino reviewed the College Council agenda for April 20, 2016.

6. International Education Office –

Renee Savage presented the functions, objectives, and services of the International Education Office. Savage was encouraged to develop a FLEX activity to continue educating the campus on our international student community.

7. Committee Appointments -

It was MSC, by all present and with no objections, to approve Jessica Martin to the Safety Committee.

It was MSC, by all present and with no objections, to approve Priscilla Beas to the Student Equity Committee.

Heiden adjourned the meeting at 12:40 p.m.
