

LIBRARY TECHNOLOGY

DEGREE AND CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

About the program

Do you enjoy working with people? Do you want to share your passion for books?

Then explore a career in library services! This dynamic field gives you many options. Jobs can be found in public, school, academic libraries and more.

You will gain skills in:

- digital technology
- archiving
- research and much more

If you like working with people, books, technology, and information, then this program is for you.

DVC

DIABLO VALLEY COLLEGE

PLEASANT HILL CAMPUS
321 Golf Club Road
Pleasant Hill, CA 94523

SAN RAMON CAMPUS
1690 Watermill Road
San Ramon, CA 94582

Programs offered

Associate Degree

- Library Technology - 60 units

Certificate of Achievement

- Library Technology - 19 units

Possible courses

- LT-101: Foundations of Library and Information Services
- LT-102: Access and Technical Services in Libraries
- LT-104: Cataloging for Paraprofessionals
- LT-105: Reference and Research Services: Tools and Techniques
- LT-121: Information Literacy and Research Skills

Career options

These careers are available to students with the above certificates and/or degree:

- Library Assistant, Clerical - $34,056
- Library Technician - $50,712
- With additional education:
- Librarian - $77,295

Did you know...

"Beverly Cleary, author of tons of children's books, including Ramona the Pest and Henry and Ribsy, started her career as a children's librarian."

(Source: readbrightly.com)

Program locations

- In-person and online at the Pleasant Hill campus

For more information:
www.dvc.edu/programs

Last update: 6/23/21