CULINARY ARTS – CULN
Despina Prapavessi, Dean
Business Division
Math Building, Room 267

Possible career opportunities
The culinary arts program provides professional training for employment as a chef, culinary supervisor, cookbook author, recipe tester, cook, kitchen manager, food server, caterer, food researcher, banquet chef, dining room manager, food stylist, menu planner, community nutrition specialist, and school foodservice specialist.

The baking program is designed to prepare students to work as pastry chefs in local restaurants, hotels, resorts, bakeries, and catering establishments. Career options include bakery production finisher, pastry decorator, caterer, baker assistant, bakery entrepreneur, and bakery chef at grocery food chains, cafes, restaurants, bakeries, hospitals, resorts, child care facilities, cafeterias, food preparation centers, and catering facilities.

The restaurant management program prepares students to enter the restaurant field as a manager-trainee in a food service establishment. Career options include: restaurant owner/operator, hotel banquet manager, dining room manager, purchasing specialist, catering manager, and food editor. Some career options may require more than two years of college study.

Program-level student learning outcomes
Program learning outcomes are subject to change. The most current list of program learning outcomes for each program is published on the DVC website at www.dvc.edu/slo.

Associate in science degree
Hospitality studies - Culinary arts

Students completing the program will be able to...
A. demonstrate an understanding of the criteria for excellence in purchasing food, preparing food, and presenting food for service.
B. demonstrate teamwork in planning, purchasing, preparing and presenting food for service.
C. demonstrate and describe the differences in producing foods for large events vs. a la carte dining.

Associate in science degree
Hospitality studies - Restaurant management

Students completing the program will be able to...
A. demonstrate an understanding of the criteria for proper service techniques used in the culinary industry.
B. demonstrate teamwork, planning, purchasing, production and service.
C. pursue opportunities available in California’s hospitality and culinary industry.

The associate in science degree in hospitality studies prepares students for entry into mid-level employment in one of three specialty areas of the hospitality and culinary arts industry: baking and pastry, culinary arts, restaurant management. This in-depth, hands-on, American Culinary Federation (ACF) accredited program of study prepares students for a professional hospitality and culinary career in a broad scope of industry opportunities in the following areas of specialization:

The DVC Culinary Program has been successfully preparing students for professional careers for the past 40 years.

Baking and pastry:
DVC has been placing students in small and large bakeries, specialty pastry shops, catering and dessert preparation in restaurants. Diablo Valley College’s baking and pastry program offers an in-depth, hands-on learning curriculum where students gain both knowledge and experience through the hotel and restaurant management program’s technical facilities. In addition to training at the DVC facilities, students gain experience working outside the college through a required internship program. DVC’s associate degree in hospitality studies with a specialization in baking and pastry is designed primarily for those students who desire to complete a two-year degree. General Education Option 1 (DVC General Education) is appropriate for students who do not intend to transfer. Students who are interested in pursuing a management-focused program in hospitality should see a counselor and consider the General Education Requirements Options 2 or 3.

Restaurant management:

Diablo Valley College's restaurant management program offers an in-depth, hands-on learning curriculum where students gain both knowledge and experience through the hotel and restaurant management program's technical facilities. Restaurant management students work and learn in a fully equipped food production kitchen, a demonstration laboratory, a retail pastry shop and a 60-seat restaurant that is open to the public. In addition to training at the DVC facilities, students gain experience working outside the college through a required internship program. DVC's associate degree in hospitality studies with a specialization in restaurant management is geared primarily towards DVC's culinary students desiring some additional management coursework. Students who are interested in pursuing a management-focused program in hospitality should expect to complete a four-year degree program at a university. These students should see a counselor and consider the General Education Requirements Options 2 or 3.

Culinary and food service students must have a current record of satisfactory tuberculosis (TB) screening on file in the Culinary Department Office by the beginning of classes. Students are required to supply their own equipment and uniforms depending on the class. To earn an associate in science degree, students must complete each course required courses:  units

Certificate of accomplishment

Culinary arts

Students completing the program will be able to...
A. explain typical career ladders for employees in the hospitality industry.
B. select and explain the use of the appropriate kitchen equipment for specific kitchen tasks.
C. explain proper health and safety procedures in the kitchen environment.
D. identify critical control points during all food handling processes as a method to minimize the risk of food-borne illness.
E. demonstrate different types of cooking methods.
F. identify and prepare basic stocks, soups, and sauces.
G. demonstrate the following tasks: follow a standard recipe, use standard weights and measures, and perform basic skills with culinary equipment.
H. describe properties and functions of various ingredients and interpret recipes and produce cookies, quick breads, pies, cakes, creams, custards and sauces, and meringues.

This training program prepares students for many entry-level positions in commercial kitchens and bakeries, specialty shops, and catering businesses. This certificate of accomplishment is the first step in pursuing a certificate of achievement in culinary arts, baking and pastry, or restaurant management.

Culinary and food service students must have a current record of satisfactory tuberculosis (TB) screening on file in the Culinary Department Office by the beginning of classes. Students are required to supply their own equipment and uniforms depending on the class. To earn a certificate of accomplishment, students must complete each course used to meet a certificate requirement with a “C” grade or higher. Certificate requirements may only be completed by attending a combination of day and evening scheduled classes.

CULN-100 Exploring Careers in the Hospitality and Culinary Industry

1 unit SC
- 18 hours lecture/20 hours laboratory per term
- Note: This course is open to all, but is particularly appropriate for high school students entering 10th, 11th or 12th grade in the fall term. Chef coat, hat, apron, tools and knives may be provided by college. Instructions will be sent to those enrolled prior to first class meeting.

This course will offer students an overview of current and emerging career opportunities in the hospitality industry. Topics include resume development, career exploration, industry site visits, review of fundamental skills required in the hospitality industry. Hands-on practice through the preparation of healthy foods, integration of sustainable practices as they relate to the hospitality industry, and employability skills will be emphasized. CSU

CULN-105 Introduction to the Kitchen

.5 unit SC
- 27 hours laboratory per term
- Co-requisite: CULN-153 (may be taken previously) or equivalent
- Note: Culinary and food service students must have a current record of satisfactory tuberculosis (TB) screening on file with the culinary offices by the beginning of classes. Students are required to supply their own equipment and uniforms depending on the class. See instructor at the first class meeting. Credit by examination option available.

This course introduces students to the requirements of the culinary arts program with an emphasis on hygiene, safety, and kitchen equipment knowledge. It is specifically designed for students with no familiarity with standard culinary protocols. CSU
