Possible career opportunities

Students who earn a special education paraeducator/instructional assistant certificate of achievement or degree are prepared for entry-level employment assisting students and individuals with disabilities in education and rehabilitation settings.

Associate in arts degree

Special education paraeducator/instructional assistant

Students completing this program will be able to...

- A. analyze state and federal legislation pertaining to general and special education.
- B. use a variety of instruction strategies and materials that respect individual differences.
- C. understand how culture affects relationships among children, families, and schooling.

The associate in arts degree in special education paraeducator/instructional assistant is designed as a two-year curricular pathway that offers students a broad general education while integrating an in-depth study of the skills and knowledge required to work with people with various disabilities in a variety of educational and related rehabilitation settings. The courses are intended to introduce students to career opportunities in special education or other disability related fields, and can provide preparation for transfer to four-year institutions to continue their course of study in general education and special education. Classes are designed to serve working individuals wishing to improve their applied skills and professional growth.

To earn a degree, students must complete each course used to meet a major requirement with a "C" grade or higher. Required courses are available in the evening and during the day. Certain courses may satisfy both a major and a graduation requirement; however, the units are only counted once. Students who intend to transfer to a four-year program in education/teacher preparation should consult with a counselor regarding specific requirements.
