Possible career opportunities

Career options that are available through the study of English include: advertising copy writer, columnist, editor, information specialist, interpreter, lawyer, lexicographer, legislative assistant, publisher, researcher, teacher, technical writer, and writing consultant. Some career options may require more than two years of college study.

Associate in arts degree

English

Students completing the program will be able to...

A. demonstrate knowledge of and familiarity with the methods of interpreting literature across genres.
B. assess, evaluate, and analyze ideas expressed in text or in spoken language.
C. create (write or present) coherent arguments that evidence clear prose and synthesize diverse bodies of knowledge.
D. conceptualize, write, workshop, present for feedback, revise and edit an original text.

The English major at Diablo Valley College (DVC) offers students the opportunity to prepare for a broad range of professions through the study of language, literature, and composition, as well as the opportunity to transfer to UC, CSU, and other four-year colleges and universities to earn a bachelor’s degree. The English major curriculum at DVC hones a student’s critical thinking, reasoning, and communication skills as it also prepares students pursuing careers in law, government, business, entertainment (film, television, and theater), advertising, writing, editing, and education.

DVC’s English major consists of 21 units of study. Students are required to take 6 units of core reading and composition courses, where they will develop their ability to craft clear prose through writing, reading, and research. In addition, students are required to complete 9 units of core genre and survey courses, and 6 units of specialized literature and writing courses, thereby developing individual interests and breadth of knowledge.

The DVC English major is intended for transfer. Students who intend to transfer must consult with a program advisor or counselor to ensure that the requirements for transfer to four-year institutions of their choice are met. Students who intend to transfer are advised to select General Education Option 2 (IGETC) or Option 3 (CSU GE). Option 1 (DVC General Education) is not generally advised.

To earn an associate in arts degree with a major in English, students must complete each course used to meet a major requirement with a “C” grade or higher, maintain an overall GPA of 2.5 or higher in the coursework required for the major and complete general education requirements as listed in the catalog. Certain courses may satisfy both major and general education requirements; however, the units are only counted once.

English

Associate in arts in English for transfer

Students completing the program will be able to...

A. demonstrate knowledge of and familiarity with the methods of interpreting literature across genres.
B. assess, evaluate, and analyze ideas expressed in text or in spoken language.
C. create (write or present) coherent arguments that evidence clear prose and synthesize diverse bodies of knowledge.
D. conceptualize, write, workshop, present for feedback, revise and edit an original text.

The English major at Diablo Valley College (DVC) offers students the opportunity to prepare for a broad range of professions through the study of language, literature, and composition, as well as the opportunity to transfer to UC, CSU, and other four year colleges and universities to earn a bachelor’s degree. The English major curriculum at DVC hones a student’s critical thinking, reasoning, and communication skills as it also prepares students pursuing careers in law, government, business, entertainment (film, television, and theater), advertising, writing, editing, and education.

The associate in arts in English for transfer is intended for students who plan to complete a bachelor’s degree in a similar major at a CSU campus. Students completing this degree are guaranteed admission to the CSU system, but not to a particular campus or major.

In order to earn the degree, students must:

- Complete 60 CSU-transferable units.
- Complete the California State University-General Education pattern (CSU GE); OR the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) pattern, including the Area 1C requirement for Oral Communication.
- Complete a minimum of 18 units in the major.
- Attain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0.
- Earn a grade of “C” or higher in all courses required for the major.

Students transferring to a CSU campus that accepts the degree will be required to complete no more than 60 units after transfer to earn a bachelor’s degree. This degree may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system, or those students who do not intend to transfer.

Some courses in the major satisfy both major and CSU GE/IGETC general education requirements; however, the units are only counted once toward the 60 unit requirement for an associate degree. Some variations in requirements may exist at certain four-year institutions; therefore, students who intend to transfer are advised to refer to the catalog of the prospective transfer institution and consult a counselor.

Skills for college success

Students completing this program will be able to...
A. use reading strategies to read and comprehend college-level texts, analyzing them for the central idea and basic organizational structure.
B. analyze college-level readings and integrate the ideas meaningfully into formal writing assignments.
C. incorporate appropriate structure and organization in their own writing.
D. structure well-organized essays that have a focused thesis and developed and well-supported paragraphs with appropriate transitional elements, and which are relatively free of sentence-level errors.
E. incorporate college success techniques into their learning behaviors (e.g. utilizing campus resources, managing stress, developing note-taking and summarizing skills, reflecting on personal student-learning processes).
F. perform arithmetic operations with real numbers and fractions.
G. integrate vocabulary with mathematical notations and computations that relate to graphs.
H. develop study habits that promote success in mathematics, such as the use of reading and metacognitive strategies to improve understanding and performance.
I. solve problems and think critically.

This noncredit program is a concise and focused foundation for English and math basics, along with the “studenting skills” necessary for college success. ENGL-091NC is designed for students to build successful academic habits and strengthen their reading and writing skills in preparation for taking transfer-level courses. The course gives students the opportunity to practice the reading, writing, and critical-thinking skills that will serve as a foundation in transfer-level composition and reading classes. Additionally, the course emphasizes strategies for academic success and familiarizes students with campus resources and support.

ENGL-090  English in a Minute: Bridge to College English
2 units  SC
• Non degree applicable
• 36 hours lecture per term
This course is designed for students to build successful academic habits and strengthen their reading and writing skills in preparation for taking transfer-level courses. The course gives students the opportunity to practice the reading, writing, and critical-thinking skills that will serve as a foundation in transfer-level composition and reading classes. Additionally, the course emphasizes strategies for academic success and familiarizes students with campus resources and support.

ENGL-091NC English Skills for Success - Noncredit
0 units  SC
• 24 hours lecture per term
This noncredit course is a concise and focused foundation for reading and writing in college, along with the “studenting skills” necessary for college success. This course is designed for students to build successful academic habits and strengthen their English skills in preparation for taking transfer-level courses. Strategies for academic success along with campus resources and support services will be covered.

ENGL-093  Sentence Structure and Punctuation
1 unit  P/NP
• Non degree applicable
• 9 hours lecture/27 hours laboratory per term
This course focuses specifically on developing skills in sentence structure and punctuation and is especially appropriate for students enrolled in other basic skills English courses.

ENGL-095  Studies in Reading and Writing
.5-5 units  SC
• Non degree applicable
• Variable hours
A supplemental course in reading and writing to provide a study of current concepts and problems in reading, writing, and related substantive areas. Specific topics will be announced in the schedule of classes.
ENGL-096  Introduction to College Reading and Study Skills
3 units  SC
• Non degree applicable
• 54 hours lecture/18 hours laboratory per term
• Note: ESL students are strongly encouraged to follow the ESL assessment process. ESL-096A is recommended for ESL students.

This course introduces students to academic culture and the common practices of academic reading, including reading strategies, annotation, summary, quoting, and response. Students will practice identifying themes and relationships between key ideas and distinguishing between main points and supporting details. A primary aim is to increase students’ reading fluency and to develop their ability to comprehend, interpret, and write about what they read. Students will also build their vocabularies and become familiar with study skills and campus resources that foster academic success.

ENGL-097  Introduction to College Reading and Writing
5 units  SC
• Non degree applicable
• 90 hours lecture per term

This course provides an integrated approach to reading and writing, preparing students for college-level work and transfer-level English. Students will be introduced to academic culture and to the practices associated with both academic reading and writing. The course presents a variety of methods for interacting with, comprehending, and responding to texts, which serve as a foundation for the course. The course also emphasizes critical thinking, the development of writing skills, and the writing process. Vocabulary development, study skills and campus resources are also covered.

ENGL-098  Introduction to College Writing
3 units  SC
• Non degree applicable
• 54 hours lecture/18 hours laboratory per term
• Note: ESL students are strongly encouraged to follow the ESL assessment process. ESL-098A is recommended for ESL students.

This course introduces students to academic culture and the common practices of academic writing, including the writing process, essay structure, organization, and idea and paragraph development. Students will compose thesis-driven, coherent essays for an academic audience. A variety of college-level texts serve as the foundation for class discussion and student writing. Students will also study grammar in the context of their own writing.

ENGL-099  English Grammar and Usage
3 units  SC
• Non degree applicable
• 54 hours lecture per term

This course is designed for native speakers wishing to better understand the rules of written academic English. The course offers instruction on fundamental rules of grammar (including mechanics, syntax and usage), especially those rules most challenging to native speakers. The course also explores connections between grammar, meaning, and style. Students will practice not only identifying and correcting grammar related errors in the context of their own writing, but also making the stylistic choices that best express their ideas and the relationships between them.

ENGL-116  College Reading Development
3 units  SC
• 54 hours lecture per term
• Advisory: ENGL-096 or reading/writing assessment process or equivalent
• Note: Only one of ENGL-116, 117, 118 or ESL-117A may be applied to the units required for the associate degree.

This course presents strategies for reading college-level materials. Students will practice methods of interacting with what they read in order to increase appreciation and comprehension. Topics include text analysis, flexible approaches to reading, vocabulary development, and study skills.

ENGL-117  Integrated College Reading and Writing Development
5 units  SC
• 90 hours lecture per term
• Advisory: ENGL-096 and ENGL-098 or equivalent
• Note: This course is equivalent to the completion of ENGL-116 and ENGL-118 or ESL-117A. Only one of ENGL-116, 117, 118 or ESL-117A may be applied to the units required for the associate degree.

This course provides an integrated approach to reading and writing for those students who have been assessed into ENGL-117 or both ENGL-116 and 118. It provides the necessary preparation for ENGL-122, transfer-level English. Students will prepare for college-level work; practice critical reading, writing, and thinking skills; and improve their vocabulary and study skills. Students will actively engage with their peers, read and interact with a variety of texts, and complete both formal and informal writing assignments connected to these readings. The central focus throughout the course will be on the ways reading and writing inform each other.

ENGL-118
College Writing Development
3 units SC
- 54 hours lecture per term
- Advisory: ENGL-098 or reading/writing assessment process or equivalent
- Note: Only one of ENGL-116, 117, 118 or ESL-117A may be applied to the units required for the associate degree.

This course is designed to help students express their ideas in college-level expository essays. Through continual practice of the writing process, students will improve their fluency and ease developing ideas for composing, organizing, and revising essays. In addition, students will analyze a variety of texts, using them as a stimulus for class discussion and as models for their own writing. This course also covers grammar in the context of students’ own writing.

ENGL-120
First-Year College Writing and Reading Support
2 units SC
- 36 hours lecture per term
- Co-requisite: ENGL-122 or equivalent

English 120 is a support course for students who place into English 122 with the requirement or recommendation of additional support. The course offers students opportunities to practice the college-level reading, writing, research, and critical-thinking skills introduced in English 122. Additionally, the course will emphasize study skills, reflection, and other practices that promote success in both English 122 and other college classes.

ENGL-120A
First-Year College English Support for Multilingual Students
2 units SC
- Non-degree applicable
- 36 hours lecture per term
- Co-requisite: ENGL-122A or equivalent

This course is designed for multilingual students who do not speak English as their primary language. The course is designed to increase students’ awareness of both American academic norms and the campus resources that foster student success. The course also gives students practice observing their own and others’ writing, strengthening their linguistic monitors, and using editing strategies to develop accurate, meaningful, and appropriate usage of linguistic forms in written expression. Reading strategies and grammar concepts specific to the needs of advanced multilingual students will also be addressed.

ENGL-121
Year-Long First-Year College Writing and Reading, Part I
3 units LR
- 54 hours lecture per term
- Prerequisite: Placement into ENGL-122; or ENGL-122L; or ENGL-117; or ENGL-117A; or ENGL-118 and 116; or assessment process or Equivalent
- Note: Successful completion of both courses is equivalent to taking and passing any of the following: ENGL-122, ENGL-122L, ENGL-122A, or ENGL-122AL. The successful completion of both ENGL-121 and ENGL-122X is required to meet the transfer-level English requirements satisfied by ENGL-122, ENGL-122L, ENGL-122A, or ENGL-122AL. Students who do not successfully complete both ENGL-121 and ENGL-122X will not get credit for transfer-level English.

ENGL-121 is the first part of a two-course series (followed by ENGL-122X) that covers the content of ENGL-122L (First-Year College Writing and Reading with Additional Support). The year-long sequence is designed for students who prefer to have more time to practice and master the reading and writing skills and academic habits required for success in First-Year College Composition and Reading. The first part of the sequence, ENGL-121, focuses on the practice of reading and writing at the college level, while also offering support, including effective reading, writing, and critical-thinking strategies. The course also encourages students to apply disciplined thought to language in order to comprehend and analyze college-level readings and to compose college-level essays that are coherent, detailed, and free of serious error. In their essays, students will use a variety of types of support, including primary and secondary research, and will employ varied rhetorical strategies used by accomplished writers. Students must pass ENGL-121 in order to move on to the second part of the sequence, ENGL-122X. ENGL-121 + ENGL-122X = C-ID ENGL 100. CSU
