 Library and Learning Resources Division
 Library Building, Room 219

Possible career opportunities

Library courses teach the skills necessary to effectively locate, organize and use information in any academic or work setting. There are various titles for the jobs you will be qualified for with a certificate of achievement or associate of science degree in library technology: library technician, library assistant, library paraprofessional, instructional media assistant, information specialist, library media specialist, and website editor.

Program-level student learning outcomes

Program learning outcomes are subject to change. The most current list of program learning outcomes for each program is published on the DVC website at www.dvc.edu/slo.

Associate in science degree
 Library technology

Students completing the program will be able to...

- A. explain library fundamental principles including intellectual freedom, open access, diversity, and patron privacy and confidentiality
- B. apply knowledge and skills gained through the coursework to perform library technician-level tasks.
- C. describe the characteristics of libraries and the roles of libraries in a diverse, multicultural, and democratic society, and how these needs can be met.
- D. apply the basic principles and standardized systems of ordering, cataloging, classifying, processing, and maintaining library materials and resources.
- E. demonstrate the workplace communication skills necessary to successfully interact with users and staff in the library and other information services.
- F. identify and use the technologies found in the library and other information services.
- G. analyze information critically to draw conclusions and/or solve problems when working with patrons, materials, and technology.

The associate in science degree in library technology prepares students for employment in the dynamic field of library and information services. The skills learned in this program may be used in public, school, academic, and corporate libraries, as well as in other jobs or businesses requiring information management skills. If you like working with people, books and information, consider a career in library technology.

DVC library technology students who intend to transfer must consult with a program advisor or counselor to ensure that the requirements for transfer to four-year institutions of their choice are met. Students who intended to transfer are advised to select either General Education Option 2 (IGETC) or Option 3 (CSU GE). General Education Option 1 is appropriate for students who do not intend to transfer.

To earn the degree, students must complete each course used to meet a major requirement with a "C" grade or higher, maintain an overall GPA of 2.5 or higher in the coursework required for the major and complete all general education requirements. Certain courses may satisfy both major and general education requirements; however, the units are only counted once. With department chairperson's approval, other course substitutions are possible for use in completing the program.
