WORK EXPERIENCE - WRKX

Beth Arman, Senior Dean
 Career and Community Partnerships
 Administration Building, Room 121

Students may earn units for learning on-the-job through Work Experience Education. It is part of the total educational process that assists students in exploring and wisely choosing a career, preparing for full-time employment, and advancing in careers of their choice.

These courses are for students who are working full or part-time and interested in earning units while gaining practical work experience, either for pay, as interns, or as volunteers. College credit is granted for the following: WRKX-160: Students who are employed but have not declared a major or their jobs are unrelated to their major. WRKX-170: Students who are employed and their jobs are related to their major. WRKX-180: Students who are participating in internship or volunteer opportunities in jobs that are related to their major.

WRKX-160 General Work Experience Education

2-3 units SC

- May be repeated eight times
- Variable hours
- Note: In order to enroll in a WRKX course, students must be employed, register for the course, complete an online Employment Form and participate in an orientation. Does not meet requirements for veterans' benefits. Incomplete grades are not awarded for WRKX.

WRKX-160 is supervised employment for students whose jobs do not relate to their college major or area of career interest. Under the supervision of a college instructor, students will acquire employability skills, desirable work habits, and career awareness through on-the-job and other learning experiences. Each unit represents five hours of work per week or 75 hours work per term. Students may earn up to a total of 16 in any combination of WRKX courses. Repetition allowed per Title 5, Section 55253. CSU

WRKX-170 Occupational Work Experience Education
