PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students completing the program will be able to:

1. Effectively apply rules of grammar and syntax in tandem with appropriate vocabulary in written and oral communication.
2. Demonstrate auditory comprehension of instruction, authentic content, and purposeful conversations in the target language.
3. Discuss, describe and infer information from authentic texts in the target language.
4. Create (write or present) narratives and/or arguments that demonstrate cohesive critical thinking in the target language.
5. Demonstrate cultural appreciation by making (comparative) connections, on both an individual and societal level, between the target cultures and students' own culture.
6. Communicate verbally in the target language with accurate pronunciation in meaningful situations present in both informal and academic contexts.
