Audio Visual Technology AS

Program Learning Outcomes
Students completing this program will be able to:
1. Analyze and describe the science and technology for basic audio, visual, and audiovisual systems integration.
2. Set up and test an audio, video, and audiovisual network.
3. Describe and explain the components of sound and hearing, and vision and light, as they pertain to human perception and venue limitations.
4. Display proper customer service and professional behavior.

Careers in
- Audio Visual Industry
- Exam preparation for AVIXA Specialist certification

Required Courses:
- MUSX 100: AV Essentials: Systems and Analysis
- MUSX 124: Introduction to Music Production and Multi-Track Recording
- CNT 103: Voice, Video and Network Cabling
- MUSX 120: Live Sound
- MUSX 101: AV Essentials: Management and Solutions
- FTVE 120: Introduction to TV Studio Production
- MUSX 296: Internship in Occupational Work Experience
- FTVE 160: Introduction to Film Production

Elective Courses:

2019-2020 Catalog