Audio Visual Technology AS

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
Students completing this program will be able to:
1. Analyze and describe the science and technology for basic audio, visual, and audiovisual systems integration.
2. Set up and test an audio, video, and audiovisual network.
3. Describe and explain the components of sound and hearing, and vision and light, as they pertain to human perception and venue limitations.
4. Display proper customer service and professional behavior.

Careers in
- Audio Visual Industry
- Exam preparation for AVIXA Specialist certification

Entry

REQUIRED
- MUSX 100 AV Essentials: Systems and Analysis
- MUSX 124 Introduction to Music Production and Multi-Track Recording
- MUSX 101 AV Essentials: Management and Solutions
- MUSX 120 Live Sound
- CNT 103 Voice, Video and Network Cabling
- FTVE 120 Introduction to TV Studio Production
- FTVE 160 Introduction to Film Production
- MUSX 296 Internship in Occupational Work Experience

Elective
- FTVE 120 Introduction to TV Studio Production