"Social Justice Studies empowers students to become historical actors through an interdisciplinary curriculum designed to critically interrogate the world and more importantly to change it."

– Dr. Albert Ponce, Political Science Professor

Social Justice

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS FOR TRANSFER (AA-T)

MISSION STATEMENT Diablo Valley College is passionately committed to student learning through the intellectual, scientific, artistic, psychological, and ethical development of its diverse student body. Diablo Valley College prepares students to transfer to four-year universities; provides career and technical education; supports the economic development of the region; offers pre-collegiate programs; and promotes personal growth and lifelong learning.

NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT The district shall not discriminate based on ethnic group identification, race, color, age, citizenship, ancestry, religion, marital status, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, mental or physical disability, medical condition, veteran status, parental status, or because a student is perceived to have one or more of these characteristics.

Required Core Courses (9 units)

Intro to Social Justice Studies (Soc Sc. 101 starts Spring 2019) OR Intro to Race & Ethnicity (Socio 135) - 3 units

Women and Social Change in the United States: 1890-Present (Soc Sc. 120) - 3 units

Gender, Culture and Society (Socio 124) - 3 units

Elective Courses (9 units)

3 courses from at least two areas: History OR Government; Arts & Humanities; Social Science; Quantitative Reasoning & Research Methods (proposed capstone)

Your Future Begins Here!

Your Future Begins Here!

For more information contact the SOCIAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Sangha Niyogi, sniyogi@dvc.edu
Albert Ponce, aponce@dvc.edu
or visit www.dvc.edu/programs

www.dvc.edu
ADMISSIONS OFFICE: 925-685-1310
COUNSELING OFFICE: 925-969-2140

Last updated: 6/15/2018

Social Justice Studies empowers students to become historical actors through an interdisciplinary curriculum designed to critically interrogate the world and more importantly to change it.

– Dr. Albert Ponce, Political Science Professor

Required Core Courses (9 units)

Intro to Social Justice Studies (Soc Sc. 101 starts Spring 2019) OR Intro to Race & Ethnicity (Socio 135) - 3 units

Women and Social Change in the United States: 1890-Present (Soc Sc. 120) - 3 units

Gender, Culture and Society (Socio 124) - 3 units

Elective Courses (9 units)

3 courses from at least two areas: History OR Government; Arts & Humanities; Social Science; Quantitative Reasoning & Research Methods (proposed capstone)

Your Future Begins Here!

For more information contact the SOCIAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Sangha Niyogi, sniyogi@dvc.edu
Albert Ponce, aponce@dvc.edu
or visit www.dvc.edu/programs

www.dvc.edu
ADMISSIONS OFFICE: 925-685-1310
COUNSELING OFFICE: 925-969-2140

Last updated: 6/15/2018

MISSION STATEMENT Diablo Valley College is passionately committed to student learning through the intellectual, scientific, artistic, psychological, and ethical development of its diverse student body. Diablo Valley College prepares students to transfer to four-year universities; provides career and technical education; supports the economic development of the region; offers pre-collegiate programs; and promotes personal growth and lifelong learning.
Social justice refers to creating a society (or community, organization, or campus) with an equitable distribution of resources and opportunities (Diane Goodman, Cultural Competency for Social Justice 2013). The goal is to have a transformative impact on our college and surrounding community culture and students who become engaged, informed, and active in their communities.

In the Social Justice program at DVC you will:

- learn to understand social injustices and inequities and proposed approaches to their remediation and/or resolution
- participate in community-based or service-learning projects overseen by Social Justice faculty that link the critical frameworks and key concepts with experiential learning
- be empowered to be civically engaged participants in college and community life
- demonstrate analytical writing ability that effectively integrates theoretical and experiential knowledge about social justice.

What can I do with a degree in Social Justice?

Countless occupations exist for people who want to fight for social justice. Some people become activists positioned at picket lines. Others work with those from disadvantaged groups as career counselors, teachers in underserved communities or public defenders. Still others attempt to bring about high-level change by running for public office or informing policy decisions with research.

Students with a major in Social Justice pursue careers in social service, social policy analysis, mediation and intervention, and social justice advocacy or pursue graduate school.

The Social Justice Studies TMC is an “area of emphasis” (AOE) and has specifically been designed to prepare students for transfer into a variety of CSU majors.

Social justice refers to creating a society (or community, organization, or campus) with an equitable distribution of resources and opportunities (Diane Goodman, Cultural Competency for Social Justice 2013). The goal is to have a transformative impact on our college and surrounding community culture and students who become engaged, informed, and active in their communities.

In the Social Justice program at DVC you will:

- learn to understand social injustices and inequities and proposed approaches to their remediation and/or resolution
- participate in community-based or service-learning projects overseen by Social Justice faculty that link the critical frameworks and key concepts with experiential learning
- be empowered to be civically engaged participants in college and community life
- demonstrate analytical writing ability that effectively integrates theoretical and experiential knowledge about social justice.

What can I do with a degree in Social Justice?

Countless occupations exist for people who want to fight for social justice. Some people become activists positioned at picket lines. Others work with those from disadvantaged groups as career counselors, teachers in underserved communities or public defenders. Still others attempt to bring about high-level change by running for public office or informing policy decisions with research.

Students with a major in Social Justice pursue careers in social service, social policy analysis, mediation and intervention, and social justice advocacy or pursue graduate school.

The Social Justice Studies TMC is an “area of emphasis” (AOE) and has specifically been designed to prepare students for transfer into a variety of CSU majors.

“Once social change begins, it cannot be reversed. You cannot uneducate the person who has learned to read. You cannot humiliate the person who feels pride. You cannot oppress the people who are not afraid anymore.”—Cesar Chavez

“Like Paulo Freire, I believe that education can never be a neutral practice, and educators can and should employ social justice-oriented pedagogy to ameliorate the inequalities in society.”

—Dr. Sangha Niyogi, Sociology Professor

Here are some of the many areas of study that the Social Justice Program will prepare you for:

- African American Studies
- Africana Studies
- African American Studies
- American Indian Studies
- American Studies
- Arabic Language, Literature and Culture
- Asian American Studies
- Chicano/Chicana Studies
- Ethnic Studies
- Gender Studies
- Labor and Employment Studies
- Labor Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Liberal Studies w/Option in Interdisciplinary Studies in Culture & Society
- Liberal Studies - Border Studies Option
- Mexican-American Studies
- Modern Jewish Studies
- Negotiation, Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding
- Sociology - Concentration in Critical Race Studies
- Sociology - Concentration Race, Class, and Gender
- Sociology with Inequalities and Diversity Option
- Social Science with Emphasis in Islamic and Arabic Studies
- Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
- Women’s Studies

By getting hands-on experience with local organizations and institutions, such as shelters, health advocacy programs, community centers, domestic abuse services and social service agencies students will gain experiences that will give them an edge once they’re on the job market.

Here are some of the many areas of study that the Social Justice Program will prepare you for:

- African American Studies
- Africana Studies
- American Indian Studies
- American Studies
- Arabic Language, Literature and Culture
- Asian American Studies
- Chicano/Chicana Studies
- Ethnic Studies
- Gender Studies
- Labor and Employment Studies
- Labor Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Liberal Studies w/Option in Interdisciplinary Studies in Culture & Society
- Liberal Studies - Border Studies Option
- Mexican-American Studies
- Modern Jewish Studies
- Negotiation, Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding
- Sociology - Concentration in Critical Race Studies
- Sociology - Concentration Race, Class, and Gender
- Sociology with Inequalities and Diversity Option
- Social Science with Emphasis in Islamic and Arabic Studies
- Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
- Women’s Studies

By getting hands-on experience with local organizations and institutions, such as shelters, health advocacy programs, community centers, domestic abuse services and social service agencies students will gain experiences that will give them an edge once they’re on the job market.

“Like Paulo Freire, I believe that education can never be a neutral practice, and educators can and should employ social justice-oriented pedagogy to ameliorate the inequalities in society.”

—Dr. Sangha Niyogi, Sociology Professor

Here are some of the many areas of study that the Social Justice Program will prepare you for:

- African American Studies
- Africana Studies
- American Indian Studies
- American Studies
- Arabic Language, Literature and Culture
- Asian American Studies
- Chicano/Chicana Studies
- Ethnic Studies
- Gender Studies
- Labor and Employment Studies
- Labor Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Liberal Studies w/Option in Interdisciplinary Studies in Culture & Society
- Liberal Studies - Border Studies Option
- Mexican-American Studies
- Modern Jewish Studies
- Negotiation, Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding
- Sociology - Concentration in Critical Race Studies
- Sociology - Concentration Race, Class, and Gender
- Sociology with Inequalities and Diversity Option
- Social Science with Emphasis in Islamic and Arabic Studies
- Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
- Women’s Studies

By getting hands-on experience with local organizations and institutions, such as shelters, health advocacy programs, community centers, domestic abuse services and social service agencies students will gain experiences that will give them an edge once they’re on the job market.

“Like Paulo Freire, I believe that education can never be a neutral practice, and educators can and should employ social justice-oriented pedagogy to ameliorate the inequalities in society.”

—Dr. Sangha Niyogi, Sociology Professor

Here are some of the many areas of study that the Social Justice Program will prepare you for:

- African American Studies
- Africana Studies
- American Indian Studies
- American Studies
- Arabic Language, Literature and Culture
- Asian American Studies
- Chicano/Chicana Studies
- Ethnic Studies
- Gender Studies
- Labor and Employment Studies
- Labor Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Liberal Studies w/Option in Interdisciplinary Studies in Culture & Society
- Liberal Studies - Border Studies Option
- Mexican-American Studies
- Modern Jewish Studies
- Negotiation, Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding
- Sociology - Concentration in Critical Race Studies
- Sociology - Concentration Race, Class, and Gender
- Sociology with Inequalities and Diversity Option
- Social Science with Emphasis in Islamic and Arabic Studies
- Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
- Women’s Studies

By getting hands-on experience with local organizations and institutions, such as shelters, health advocacy programs, community centers, domestic abuse services and social service agencies students will gain experiences that will give them an edge once they’re on the job market.

“Like Paulo Freire, I believe that education can never be a neutral practice, and educators can and should employ social justice-oriented pedagogy to ameliorate the inequalities in society.”

—Dr. Sangha Niyogi, Sociology Professor