

RELEASE FORM FOR USE OF STUDENT WORKS

I [_____] [print student name] hereby confirm that I understand that under the U.S. Copyright Act, students own their class work, and no one else may use it without the students' consent, unless it falls within the exception of the "fair use" doctrine (e.g. for teaching and research). However, the Contra Costa Community College District ("District") or its agents (e.g. faculty) may wish to use the works of students ("Work") for additional instructional or promotional purposes, as models or examples during a course or at a future time in a course reader, syllabus, published textbook, online classes, and for other District-related purposes. With this understanding, I hereby give [_____] [Instructor's name] permission to use:

[title of work]

OR

All work created in _____ [department and course number]

- I authorize the instructor(s) to copy and distribute this work as a sample or example with the understanding that all identifying information will be removed prior to sharing the work.
- I authorize the instructor(s) to copy and distribute this work without removing my identifying information,
- I withhold authorization for any distribution of my work.

"Student Works" or "Work" may include, but is not limited to, music, art, photography, poetry, term papers, written articles, assignments, intellectual research, and video/audio recordings.

Permission will exist indefinitely unless otherwise specified. Consent extends to uses of student work for all the purposes noted above. By signing below, you hereby release and discharge the District, its agents, officers and employees, and any and all authorized users of the Work, for yourself and your assigns, from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, causes of action or damages whatsoever, without limitation, including, but not limited to copyright violation, defamation, and/or invasion of privacy, in any way arising out of, connected with, or related to all or any part of the Work as described above and any uses thereof.
