

Psychology AA-T

■ Required
● Elective
● IGETC category
 * This course has prerequisites.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Identify the major theoretical orientations in psychology and demonstrate knowledge of basic psychological concepts regarding behavior and mental processes.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of research methods, ethical considerations in conducting research, and effective use of the American Psychological Association (APA) style in presenting information.
3. Utilize critical thinking skills to analyze, evaluate, and make decisions concerning complex contemporary issues in psychology.
4. Recognize the complexity of social, cultural, and international diversity.
5. Apply psychological principles to the development of interpersonal, occupational, and social skills, and life-long personal growth.
6. Demonstrate understanding of major theories, concepts, and research findings in selected content areas of psychology, such as lifespan development, personality and social psychology, neuroscience, and abnormal psychology.
7. Correctly apply statistical concepts to organize and understand data from psychological research.
8. Demonstrate an understanding of biological processes underlying behavior and experience.

Careers in

- Therapy
- Education
- Research

Complete 60 degree applicable units along with completion of all required general education requirements. It is highly recommended that you see a counselor for specific courses that will best meet your educational plan/goals. Not all courses on the map are offered every term. Consult the Catalog and the Schedule of Classes for more details.

For information about transferring, see:
<https://www.dvc.edu/enrollment/transfer/index.html>

For information on careers in this field see:
<https://www.dvc.edu/enrollment/career-employment/index.html>