Sarah Schulman—novelist, playwright, screenwriter, non-fiction writer and AIDS historian, as well as author of Let the Record Show: A Political History of ACT UP, New York 1987-1993—will join faculty member James Wilson in conversation about the documentary film United in Anger: A History of ACT UP, by Jim Hubbard. Schulman, an AIDS activist herself who was in the trenches fighting the epidemic with ACT UP in the face of corporate greed, social indifference, and government neglect, will share strategies for cultivating critical hope when the odds seem to be stacked against justice. Attendees are encouraged to attend a screening of the film prior to the event. The film is available through the DVC Library on Kanopy.

Sarah Schulman is a novelist, playwright, screenwriter, nonfiction writer and AIDS historian. She is the author of the recent book LET THE RECORD SHOW: A Political History of ACT UP, New York 1987-1993.

Register in advance for this Zoom event at www.dvc.edu/equity-speakers

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email with information about joining the zoom.