GETTING THE MOST OUT OF DVC
Choosing the right classes and putting time and effort into your school work are both critical, but they are not the only keys to your success at DVC.

To be an excellent student – or even a good one – is to know when to ask for help and how to access DVC’s outstanding student support resources.

DVC offers workshops to help ensure your success in the three most important areas of any college student’s life: academics, personal development, and career and transfer.

This guide will help you choose the workshops that will help you become the successful student you have the potential to be.
