

Prerequisite Challenge for German 121, 220, 221, 230, and 231

To challenge a prerequisite, you must provide documentation. Please note: you may only challenge if there is a space in the class or on its waitlist.

If you do not have a transcript showing completion of the prerequisite, you may write an essay answer in German to the appropriate prompt below. Submit your essay and Prerequisite Challenge form to the Admissions and Records Office.

For German 121

Write one to one-and-a-half hand-written pages in German to describe your daily routine: what you do every day; what you did last weekend; and what you are going to do on your next vacation.

For German 220

Write one-and-a-half to two full hand-written pages in German to describe how you came to know German, and/or why you are interested in taking this class.

For German 221 and above

Write a minimum of two hand-written pages in German describing one or more aspects of German culture.

Once you have hand written your response, please upload your challenge online:
