

Articulation Agreement 2023 - 2024

Kaiser Permanente School of Allied Health Sciences (KPSAHS) and Diablo Valley College (DVC)

Introduction:

KPSAHS offers baccalaureate degrees in diagnostic medical sonography, nuclear medicine, and radiologic technology, and admissions requirements can be found on kpsahs.edu and in the catalog. Students must earn an associate degree (or higher) to enroll in the baccalaureate degree program and complete specific program prerequisites. The table below identifies courses, AP exams, and CSU GE & C-ID designators accepted as program prerequisites in effect at time of signing. Additional comments:

- KPSAHS maintains a transfer credit database<sup>1</sup> (hyperlinked on kpsahs.edu) where additional courses or courses no longer offered by DVC can be found.
- Students must earn a grade of C- or higher or Pass/No Pass (P/NP) in prerequisite courses.
- The course (or courses) used to fulfill each prerequisite must be a minimum of 3 semester or 4 quarter credits.
