HIST 181 WORLD HISTORY
SINCE 1500, Section 9321
Fully online class with no required meetings

Course begins on 8/23/21

Journey with us through World History as we trace the interconnected histories of the Americas, Asia, Africa and Europe from the 1500s to the present and use them to make sense of the world around us today. Along the way, we’ll meet Malintzin, the indigenous woman who served as Hernando Cortés’ translator during the Spanish conquest of the Aztec Empire, and Nakazawa Keiji, whose manga series Barefoot Gen documents his experiences as a child in Hiroshima, Japan, during World War II.
